

AGNC Added to Preliminary List of Russell 3000

June 25, 2008 9:12 PM EDT

BETHESDA, Md., June 25 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- American Capital Agency Corp. (Nasdaq: AGNC), a real estate investment trust (REIT) formed in 2008 and externally managed by an affiliate of American Capital Strategies, Ltd. (Nasdaq: ACAS) (American Capital), announced today that Russell Investments has included AGNC in its preliminary list of companies slated to join the Russell 3000 Index at the close of the market on Friday, June 27, 2008, when Russell reconstitutes its family of indexes for 2008. Final index membership will be posted by Russell on Monday, June 30, 2008. The Russell 3000 Index measures the performance of the 3,000 largest public companies listed on U.S. stock exchanges, based on total market capitalization, which represents approximately 98% of the investable U.S. equity market, according to Russell. More detailed information can be found on the website of Russell Investments at www.russell.com.

We are pleased to be included in the Russell 3000 Index, following our initial public offering just last month, said John Erickson, Chief Financial Officer. We believe our inclusion in the Index will attract a wider investor audience.

AGNC recently announced a $0.31 per share dividend for the shortened stub period from the closing of its initial public offering (IPO) on May 20, 2008 through June 30, 2008. AGNC has invested approximately $2.5 billion in agency securities since the IPO and expects to have held this portfolio for an average of 27 days during the stub period.
