

American Capital Agency to Ring NASDAQ Closing Bell in Celebration of Two Years as a Publicly Traded Company

May 14, 2010 11:31 PM EDT

BETHESDA, Md., May 14, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --American Capital Agency Corp. (Nasdaq: AGNC) ("AGNC" or the "Company") announced today that Malon Wilkus, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman, and Gary Kain, Chief Investment Officer, will preside over the May 17, 2010 NASDAQ closing bell ceremony. Joining Messrs. Wilkus and Kain will be members of the Board of Directors and management team.

"Since its initial public offering in May 2008 at $20 per share, AGNC has paid a total of $9.06 per share in dividends and generated a total return of 89% (1) for its shareholders. AGNC's performance is a testament to the Company's focus on balancing the generation of attractive risk-adjusted returns and the preservation of book value," said Mr. Wilkus.

"Our ability to invest across the agency securities spectrum coupled with our relative value approach to asset selection has allowed us to generate positive returns for our shareholders. I am honored to join Malon, the Board of Directors, and the rest of the management team in representing AGNC as we celebrate two years listed on NASDAQ," said Mr. Kain.

The ceremony will begin at 3:50 p.m. Eastern Time, with remarks from Messrs. Wilkus and Kain just prior to the closing at 4:00 p.m. A live webcast of the NASDAQ Closing Bell will be available at: http://www.nasdaq.com/reference/marketsite_about.stm.
