MANAGEMENT REMARKS

"In December, the Federal Reserve raised short term interest rates for the first time in almost 10 years," commented Gary Kain, President and Chief Investment Officer. "In anticipation of the Fed move, the yield curve flattened during the quarter, with an increase in shorter term U.S. Treasury rates of approximately 40 basis points, coupled with an increase in longer term U.S. Treasury rates of approximately 20 basis points. Agency MBS spreads continued to widen during the quarter, but the move in spreads was more subdued than what we experienced earlier in the year. Despite the dual headwinds of higher interest rates and wider agency MBS spreads, AGNC's total economic return was a positive 0.8%, as improved carry on our investments and accretion from share repurchases more than offset the modest decline in our net book value per common share."

"Importantly, as we look ahead into 2016, it is becoming increasingly likely that the combination of slower global economic growth, persistently low commodity prices, adverse currency moves and the reversal of the flow of funds from sovereign wealth funds and some central banks will negatively impact the U.S. economic growth and inflation outlook. Against this backdrop, we believe the Federal Reserve's ability to continue to raise short term interest rates has been materially reduced. This more favorable interest rate outlook, when combined with the enhanced earnings power of our portfolio stemming from wider MBS spreads, gives us reason to be optimistic about 2016. If market conditions evolve along these lines, portfolio returns could be further supported by either higher leverage or a reduction in aggregate hedge cost."

"The current price-to-book discounts across the mortgage REIT space are not consistent with the improving fundamental landscape for investors in agency MBS," commented Malon Wilkus, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Consequently, AGNC repurchased $161 million, or 2.6%, of its outstanding common stock in the fourth quarter. This volume is indicative of the improved outlook for our business and the very significant discount to NAV at which we can purchase our shares. If current business and economic fundamentals persist and the market continues to trade our shares at such a significant discount to NAV, we would expect to continue to be very active buying back shares."

NET BOOK VALUE

As of December 31, 2015, the Company's net book value per common share was $22.59, or $(0.41) lower than its September 30, 2015 net book value per common share of $23.00, largely due to further spread widening between agency MBS and benchmark interest rates, such as interest rate swap rates.

INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO

As of December 31, 2015, the Company's investment portfolio totaled $59.9 billion, comprised of:

- $58.0 billion of fixed-rate securities, including:
 - $16.9 billion ≤ 15-year securities,
 - $0.3 billion 15-year net long TBA securities,
 - $1.1 billion 20-year fixed-rate securities,
 - $32.6 billion 30-year fixed-rate securities and
 - $7.1 billion 30-year net long TBA securities;
- $0.5 billion of adjustable-rate securities;

- $1.3 billion of collateralized mortgage obligations ("CMOs"), including principal and interest-only strips; and
- $0.1 billion of AAA non-agency securities.

As of December 31, 2015, inclusive of TBA securities, ≤ 15-year and 30 year fixed rate securities represented 29% and 66% of the Company's investment portfolio, respectively, unchanged from September 30, 2015.

As of December 31, 2015, the Company's fixed-rate securities, inclusive of TBA securities, had a weighted average coupon of 3.52%, unchanged from September 30, 2015, comprised of the following weighted average coupons:

- 3.25% for ≤ 15-year fixed rate securities;
- 3.48% for 20-year fixed-rate securities; and
- 3.63% for 30-year fixed-rate securities.

The Company accounts for its TBA mortgage portfolio (also referred to as "dollar roll funded assets") as derivative instruments and recognizes dollar roll income in other gain (loss), net on the Company's financial statements. As of December 31, 2015, the Company's net TBA position had a total fair value and a total cost basis of $7.4 billion and a net carrying value of $14 million reported in derivative assets/(liabilities) on the Company's balance sheet, compared to a total fair value of $7.4 billion, a total cost basis of $7.3 billion and a net carrying value of $120 million as of September 30, 2015.

CONSTANT PREPAYMENT RATES

The Company's investment portfolio had a weighted average CPR of 9.5% for the fourth quarter, compared to 12.4% for the prior quarter. The weighted average projected CPR for the remaining life of the Company's agency securities held as of December 31, 2015 decreased to 8.4% from 9.0% as of September 30, 2015 due to higher interest rates.

The weighted average cost basis of the Company's investment portfolio was 104.6% of par value as of December 31, 2015. Net premium amortization cost on the Company's investment portfolio for the fourth quarter was $(78) million, or $(0.23) per common share, including a "catch-up" premium amortization benefit of $14 million, or $0.04 per common share, due to changes in the Company's projected CPR estimates. This compares to net premium amortization cost for the prior quarter of $(128) million, or $(0.37) per common share, including a "catch-up" premium amortization cost of $(33) million, or $(0.10) per common share. The net unamortized premium balance as of December 31, 2015 was $2.3 billion.

The Company amortizes or accretes premiums and discounts associated with purchases of agency securities into interest income using the effective yield method over the estimated life of such securities, incorporating both actual repayments to date and projected repayments over the remaining life of the security. Faster actual or projected repayments can have a meaningful negative impact on the Company's asset yields, while slower actual or projected repayments can have a meaningful positive impact.

ASSET YIELDS, COST OF FUNDS AND NET INTEREST RATE SPREAD

The Company's average asset yield on its "balance sheet funded assets" (i.e., the Company's investment portfolio excluding the net TBA position) was 2.87% for the fourth quarter, an increase from 2.42% for the prior quarter. Excluding "catch-up" premium amortization benefit or (cost), the Company's average asset yield was 2.76% for the fourth quarter, an increase from 2.69% the prior quarter.

For the fourth quarter, the Company's average cost of funds was 1.60%, a decrease from 1.70% for the prior quarter. The Company's average cost of funds includes the cost of agency repurchase agreements ("agency repo"), Federal Home Loan Bank ("FHLB") advances, debt of consolidated variable interest entities ("other debt") and interest rate swaps (including interest rate swaps used to hedge the Company's dollar roll funded assets) measured against the Company's daily weighted average agency repurchase agreements, FHLB advances and other debt balance outstanding.

Excluding swap costs related to the Company's TBA dollar roll funded assets, the Company's cost of funds for its balance sheet funded assets was 1.45% for the fourth quarter, a decrease from 1.49% for the prior quarter, largely due to a decline in swap costs, partially offset by higher repo funding costs.

The Company's combined annualized net interest rate spread on its balance sheet and dollar roll funded assets for the quarter was 1.47%, compared to 1.14% for the prior quarter. Excluding "catch-up" premium amortization benefit or (cost), the Company's combined annualized net interest rate spread on its balance sheet and dollar roll funded assets for the quarter was 1.38%, compared to 1.37% for the prior quarter.

On a per share basis, the Company recognized $0.58 per common share of net spread and dollar roll income (a non-GAAP financial measure) for the fourth quarter, compared to $0.41 for the prior quarter. Excluding "catch-up" premium amortization benefit or (cost), the Company's net spread and dollar roll income was $0.54 per common share for the fourth quarter, an increase from $0.51 per common share for the prior quarter. Net spread and dollar roll income for the fourth quarter included $0.16 per common share of dollar roll income, a decrease from $0.21 per common share for the prior quarter due to a smaller average TBA dollar roll position and moderately weaker dollar roll funding levels. A reconciliation of the Company's net interest income to net spread and dollar roll income and additional information regarding the Company's use of non-GAAP measures are included later in this release.

LEVERAGE

As of December 31, 2015, $41.7 billion of agency repo, $3.8 billion of FHLB advances and $0.6 billion of other debt were used to fund acquisitions of agency and AAA non-agency securities. Inclusive of its net TBA position, the Company's "at risk" leverage ratio was 6.8x as of December 31, 2015, unchanged from September 30, 2015. The Company's average "at risk" leverage ratio for the quarter was 6.8x, compared to 6.2x for the prior quarter.

As of December 31, 2015, the Company's agency repurchase agreements had a weighted average interest rate of 0.61%, an increase from 0.52% as of September 30, 2015, and a weighted average remaining days to maturity of 173 days, a decrease from 201 days as of September 30, 2015.

- $2.8 billion from three to five years.

As of December 31, 2015, the Company's FHLB advances had a weighted average interest rate of 0.53% and a weighted average remaining maturity of 141 days. On January 12, 2016, the Federal Housing Finance Agency ("FHFA") released its final rule on FHLB membership, which requires the termination of the Company's captive insurance subsidiary's FHLB membership after a one year period ending in February 2017. The Company's weighted average remaining days to maturity as of December 31, 2015 has been adjusted to reflect the final ruling.

The Company also announced that it has formed a wholly-owned broker-dealer subsidiary. The broker-dealer is fully staffed and is currently in the regulatory application process and expects to be operational in mid-2016. The new entity intends to become a member of the Fixed Income Clearing Corporation ("FICC") and to provide the Company with additional repo funding and TBA trade clearing capabilities.

As of December 31, 2015, 87% of the Company's outstanding balance of repurchase agreements, FHLB advances, other debt and net TBA position was hedged through interest rate swaps, swaptions and net U.S. Treasury positions, a decrease from 96% as of September 30, 2015.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on estimates, projections, beliefs and assumptions of management of the Company at the time of such statements and are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties in predicting future results and conditions. Actual results could differ materially from those projected in these forward-looking statements due to a variety of important factors, including, without limitation, changes in interest rates, changes in the yield curve, changes in prepayment rates, the availability and terms of financing, changes in the market value of the Company's assets, general economic conditions, market conditions, conditions in the market for agency securities, and legislative and regulatory changes that could adversely affect the business of the Company. Certain factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements, are included in the Company's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Copies are available on the SEC's website, www.sec.gov. The Company disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements based on the occurrence of future events, the receipt or new information, or otherwise.

USE OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In addition to the results presented in accordance with GAAP, the Company's results of operations discussed in this release include certain non-GAAP financial information, including "adjusted net interest expense" (defined as interest expense plus the periodic interest rate costs of the Company's interest rate swaps reported in gain (loss) on derivatives and other securities, net in its consolidated statements of comprehensive income), "net spread and dollar roll income" (defined as interest income, TBA dollar roll income and dividends from REIT equity securities, net of adjusted net interest expense and operating expenses) and "estimated taxable income" and certain financial metrics derived from non-GAAP information, such as "cost of funds" and "net interest rate spread."

By providing users of the Company's financial information with such measures in addition to the related GAAP measures, the Company believes it gives users greater transparency into the information used by the Company's management in its financial and operational decision-making and that it is meaningful information to consider related to: (i) in the case of adjusted net interest expense, the economic costs of financing the Company's investment portfolio inclusive of interest rate swaps used to economically hedge against fluctuations in its borrowing costs, (ii) in the case of net spread and dollar roll income, the Company's current financial performance without the effects of certain transactions that are not necessarily indicative of its current investment portfolio and operations, and (iii) in the case of estimated taxable income, information that is directly related to the amount of dividends the Company is required to distribute in order to maintain its REIT qualification status. However, because such measures are incomplete measures of the Company's financial performance and involve differences from results computed in accordance with GAAP, they should be considered as supplementary to, and not as a substitute for, results computed in accordance with GAAP. In addition, because not all companies use identical calculations, the Company's presentation of such non-GAAP measures may not be comparable to other similarly-titled measures of other companies. Furthermore, estimated taxable income can include certain information that is subject to potential adjustments up to the time of filing the Company's income tax returns, which occurs after the end of its fiscal year.

A reconciliation of GAAP net interest income to non-GAAP net spread and dollar roll income and a reconciliation of GAAP net income to non-GAAP estimated taxable income is included in this release.
